

Friends of Atchison Library
is pleased to present
AN EVENING WITH THE
ATCHISON VILLAGE HISTORY PROJECT

Have you ever wondered about the people who formed our corporation and what they went through to establish and preserve it? If so, please come to this follow-up event to last Fall's Community Day.

Everyone is welcome, especially those who were around back in the early days. Come join us for delicious refreshments and some stimulating conversation about the origins of our Village.

Our presenters for the evening will include Marie Kochaver on the formation of the first board of directors, and Mills College professor, Rachael Stryker, who will discuss the recent AV oral history project, "A Home of Our Own: The Stories of Atchison Village's Longtime Residents."

Representatives from the Richmond Museum of History and the National Park Service will also be on hand.

Tuesday, February 8 7:00 p.m. in the AV Hall
