David Duhalde is a DC-based political and socialist activist. He holds a bachelor's degree in political science and East Asian studies from Bowdoin College and masters degrees in public policy and nonprofit business administration from The Heller School at Brandeis University. Duhalde is the current Political Director of Our Revolution – a progressive political action organization inspired by Senator Bernie Sanders' 2016 presidential campaign.

Currently, Our Revolution has over 200,000 members and 600 groups across the country (and a few in Europe). Under Duhalde's tenure, Our Revolution won over 70 races in the 2018 general election cycle, including electing Alexandria Ocasio-Cortez, Rashida Tlaib, Ilhan Omar, and Deb Haaland to the U.S. House of Representatives. In 2017-18, OR endorsed five Richmond-based candidates —Jovanka Beckles, Gayle McLaughlin, Melvin Willis, Eduardo Martinez, and Ada Recinos; in 2016, it backed the Team Richmond slate composed of Willis and Ben Choi.

Prior to joining Our Revolution, Duhalde worked for Democratic Socialists of America as their Deputy Director. At DSA, Duhalde created and supervised DSA's electoral strategy and oversaw the organization's rapid expansion to 150 local chapters and 100 campus groups. Duhalde also represented DSA at meetings of the Socialist International and International Union of Socialist Youth.
