

Meet Richmond's Newest City Council Member, Ada Recinos!

When: Saturday, April 21, 2 to 6 PM

Where: 747 Lobos Ave., Richmond

(home of Steve Early & Suzanne Gordon)

Why: Ada needs campaign help!

Richmond's newest and youngest RPA city councilor, Ada Recinos - who serves as Gayle McLaughlin's appointed replacement - is running for election this year, for the first time. To help Ada raise funds for her campaign and meet new friends and neighbors, we're hosting a house party for her. (No minimum donation or any at all required.) Please bring your questions and suggestions for her campaign.

Because Ada is the proud daughter of Salvadoran immigrants, we will also be discussing current threats to members of the Salvadoran community, locally and nationally, who are Dreamers, undocumented, have temporary protective status or sought refuge here from violence in their home country.

Co-sponsors: Jovanka Beckles, Ben Choi, Melvin Willis, Eduardo Martinez, Andres Soto, Gayle McLaughlin, Malia Everette, Juan Reardon, Alex Early, Alexis Parker, Marilyn Langlois, Marilyn Albert, Ellen Pechman, Jeff Shoji, Earl Koteen, Bindu Desai, Summer Brenner, J.P.
